Winter Kayaking in Eastern Helsinki Archipelago: A Unique Nordic Adventure

Experience the serene beauty of Finland's winter wilderness with a one-of-a-kind kayaking tour in the stunning Eastern Helsinki archipelago. This guided Winter Kayaking Tour offers visitors a rare opportunity to connect with nature during the quietest season of the year. Whether you're an experienced adventurer or someone looking to embrace Finnish nature for the first time, this winter kayaking tour promises a tranquil and unforgettable experience.

Discover the Sleeping Beauty of Finland's Winter Nature

As you glide through the calm, icy waters, the only sounds you'll hear are the rhythmic paddling of your kayak and the occasional call of winter birds. It's a unique way to explore the raw beauty of Finland's winter landscapes, a place where silence speaks volumes. This is the Finnish way of visiting the outdoors - Cold temperatures aren't seen as obstacles but as part of the adventure. Experience wintry Helsinki archipelago, a popular destination for nature lovers year-round.

A Safe and Guided Experience for Beginners and Adventurers Alike

Don't worry if you're new to kayaking—this winter adventure is designed for beginners. Expert guidance and professional equipment ensure both your safety and enjoyment. The guide will lead you through protected waters, avoiding strong winds and currents to guarantee a smooth and safe ride. At the start of the tour we go through the basics of kayaking and related gear - Ensuring you feel confident before we embark on the journey.

- Tours are kept small and intimate, ensuring personalized and immersive experience for everyone.

Vuosaari Paddling Center is situated in Eastern Helsinki. The tour starts from the Paddling Center but we embark on the sea from varied locations, depending on the weather and ice situation. The tour does not include transportation but Finnish public transportation will get you here in no time!
